

For the fee remittances by the NIT Students under DASA scheme, one particular foreign bank (BANK OF NEW YORK) have been given as the correspondent of SBI for crediting the amount to their EEFC account.

This has resulted delay in receipt of the remittance and also deduction of considerable amount as transaction charges while passing through the Bank of New York.

In this connection it is notified that there are a few more foreign banks as correspondents of SBI in USD DOLLARS through whom fund can be remitted to Indian account.

Name and Swift code of the prominent banks are given below for your reference while remitting the tuition fee from Monsoon Semester 2016-17 onward.
